3.	For Regional bulletins (7.00 p.m,)	Rs. 800 per bulletin
4.	For Headlines	Rs. 500 per bulletin
5.	For Weather Reporting	Rs. 500 per bulletin
6.	For Voice-overs	Rs. 500 per bulletin

Channels Telecast by DD

2950. SHRIM(X)LCHANDMEENA:
SHRI SURESH PACHOURI:

Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) the details of different channels telecast by Doordarshan at present;

(b) the channels which die viewers can access directly with good reception without die help of cable operators;

(c) die reasons that viewers have to approach cable operators for viewing different channels; and

(d) whedier it would not affect die fundamental right of viewers to receive uninterrupted flow of transmission?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ): (a) Doordarshan is presently telecasting programmes on 21 (twenty one) channels [DD 1, DD2, DD News, DD Sports, DD World, Gyan Darshan, eleven regional channels, and four state networks].

(b) Two channels telecast by Doordarshan, viz., DD1 and DD2, are transmitted in terrestrial mode also, and Uiese can be received directly within uie coverage zones of the respective transmitters, using simple antenna.

(c) Programmes of satellite channels mat are not transmitted terrestrially can be received by using an appropriate dish antenna system, or through die Cable Network.

(d) No Sir.